Overall Summary

Basically, your chart on surface it looks pretty good, for career, relationship and wealth. However, the major obstacles is that the box 9 and box 2, which are your basic character, changes and mixed with more other "lousy" characters in box 1 and box 8, this lead to more complication and will affect the people around you in career, relationship and wealth directly. (You will need to understand that this is not your fault, the bazi is like this)

Going back into the character summary, if you can see that there are many negative characters, being stubborn, impulsive, sentimental, aggressive, etc, The only way you can change, is to step back and reflect and decide that if you want to have a better life in career, relationship and wealth, you will need to change as a person, meaning that you will have to slowly take note on your not so good personality, address the personality issue one by one, choose the words careful, not being too aggressive, be more flexible, etc, the route is tough as the character is there with you for over 46 years. Will have to take baby steps to change yourself, then all the other 3 sectors will improve slowly. Things will get better, when you decide and choose to improve and make yourself better.
